- (f) that he do not hold any paid office under the Municipality.

An employe qualified to vote shall be also qualified as a candidate, provided that the monthly rental value of the house, or portion of the house, occupied by him be not less than Rs. 50.

Persons living in a chummery, who are qualified to vote, shall also be qualified as candidates, provided that the rent, if equally divided, qualifies each person under the first part of this rule.

Persons boarding and lodging in private families, or at hotels, or clubs, qualiced to vote shall be also qualified as candidates, provided that one-fifth of the charge for boarding and lodging in respect of each person is sufficient to qualify under the first part of this rule.

<Amendment 18.06.1989>

7. No person shall be qualified to be a candidate who, if a member, would be subject to removal from the Committee for any of the reasons specified in section 10 of the Myanmar Municipal Act, 1884. In case of the death, resignation, or removal of any elected member of the Committee, whether the death, resignation, or removal occur before or after the said member has taken his seat on the Committee, his successor shall be elected in the manner provided in Rule 1.

<Amendment 18.06.1989>

8. Each voter may give one vote for each vacancy among the representatives of the community, and, in the case of a Myanmar voter, may give one vote for the ward to which he may belong. But no voter shall give more than one vote for any one candidate. Voters of mixed nationality shall be allowed to select either of the two communities with which they are connected in which to vote, but no elector shall vote in more than one community, nor, having recorded himself as belonging to any one community, shall a voter be allowed to change.

<Amendment 18.06.1989>

9. The President of the Municipal Committee shall prepare lists of all persons qualified to vote for each community and in each ward, and shall publish such lists in at least three issues of two or more of the local newspapers as soon as possible after the 1st July in each year. Any person may apply to have his name entered in any list, or to have his name transferred from one list to another, within one month of the date of the first publication of the lists.

Every application to be put on the voter's list shall state the qualifications upon which the applicant relies, and if the applicant be a tax-payer; the receipt for the taxes for the quarter previous to such application must be forwarded. The President shall reject every application which does not comply with this rule without referring to the election sub-committee.

The President, if he sees no valid objection, and if he deems the applicant duly qualified, shall comply with such application. If the President does not deem the applicant qualified, he shall lay the case before the election sub-committee. If the said sub-committee decide by a majority against the applicant, they shall reject the application, and such rejection shall be final so far as concerns the year next following after the rejection.

10. Any person may apply to the President to remove any name from any of the lists published under Rule 8. Every application made under this rule shall be made within one month after the date of the first publication of the lists. Every such application shall be laid before the election sub-committee, which shall decide, after such enquiry as may be necessary, whether it shall be granted or rejected. Provided that no person's name shall be removed from any list until the person shall have had an opportunity of showing cause why his name should not be removed.

No application under this rule shall refer to more than one name.

11. The expenses of election, as may be determined by the President, shall be defrayed by the Municipality. The President shall notify in three or more issues of at least one English and one Vernacular local newspaper, at least 14 days before the day appointed, the date upon which, and the places where, the polling is to take place for each community and for each ward, together with the names of candidates who have obtained for any community or ward the qualification described in clause (d) of Rule 6.

On the day fixed, the polls shall be open from 8 A.M. until 4 P.M. The voting shall be by papers, which shall contain the name of the person voting, the community, and, in the case of Myanmar voters, the ward he belongs to and the candidate for whom he votes. Every voting paper must be handed in at the polling place by the voter himself or herself. The voting papers shall be stamped by one of the tellers present and placed in a locked box, and at the end of the day shall be lodged in the Municipal Office. The President shall appoint tellers to watch the ballot during the day of the election. The boxes shall be strongly fastened with Chubbs' locks, the keys of which shall be in charge of the President or Secretary, and the boxes shall be opened and the votes sorted by the election sub-committee assisted by such officers of the Committee as may be appointed for the purpose.

<Amendment 18.06.1989>

12. The results of the sorting of the votes shall be published by the President within forty-eight hours of the closing of the poll, and the names standing highest on the poll for each community or ward shall, subject to any alteration made in accordance with the next following rule, be the elected members for each community.
13. At any time within seven days of the day of the poll, any qualified voter may make in writing to the President an objection against the return of any candidate either on the score of irregularity in the election proceedings, or on the score of bribery or undue influence, or on other good cause. The objection shall be considered by the election sub-committee. If the objection be held to be valid by a majority of the election sub-committee, the candidate shall be declared disqualified, and the order of candidates in the published list shall be modified in accordance with the sub-committee's decision. If a majority of the said sub-committee disallow the objection, the election shall stand.
14. If an equal number of votes shall be given for any two or more candidates within any community or ward, and the addition of a vote would entitle any of such candidates to be elected, then such additional vote shall be given by the President.
15. Members to represent the Chamber of Commerce and the Port Commissioners shall be elected in such way as each of those bodies respectively may determine. A certificate under the signature of the Chairman of each body, shall warrant the President in entering the name mentioned in such certificate in the list of elected members.

16. After the period allowed for objections under Rule 13 shall have expired, the President shall certify to the Secretary to the Chief Commissioner the names of the elected members for each community and botly; and the names of the members of the Municipal Committee for the ensuing term shall be notified in the British Myanmar Gazette.

In the case of bye-elections, members elected to fill vacancies may take their seats at any time after the period allowed for objections under Rule 13 has expired, and the President shall certify to the Secretary to the Chief Commissioner the names of members so elected for notification in the British Myanmar Gazette.
