On every log of timber left or stored in or on the banks of the canal and not passed out of the canal within seven days of its entry therein, there shall be levied a charge of 2 annas per month or part of a month during which the log remains in the canal. Logs found abandoned or left unclaimed for a period of two months will be dealt with under section 9 of the Act.

- ☐ 4. The person in charge of every launch, boat, or raft shall upon entering the canal immediately pay the toll leviable, and shall not proceed until he receives a toll-ticket signed by a Canal Officer. On such toll-ticket shall be entered the capacity of the vessel or raft, and the amount paid.
- ☐ 5. The toll-ticket shall be kept on the vessel or raft by the person in charge thereof so long as such vessel or raft is in the canal, and shall be produced for inspection by such person upon the demand of any Canal Officer, and shall be delivered up to a Canal Officer upon the vessel or raft passing out of the canal.
- ☐ 6. If a toll-ticket is lost, a fresh ticket must be obtained upon payment at the rate in Rule 3 applicable to the vessel or raft.
- ☐ 7. No boat engaged by a Government officer, whether civil or military, shall be exempted from payment of toll on the ground that the officer is travelling on public duty.
Exceptions to this rule are made in the case of certain vessels and officers under the special sanction of the Chief Commissioner.
- ☐ 8. Any vessel remaining in the canal more than a month shall pay toll in accordance with Rule 3, clauses (e) and (f) .
- ☐ 9. Every vessel when entering the canal and when anchored or moored therein shall have its mast or masts lowered.
- ☐ 10. No two or more vessels shall be anchored, moored, or navigated alongside of one another in the canal.
- ☐ 11. No vessel with a fixed mast shall enter, navigate, or remain in any place in the canal without the permission in writing of the Canal Officer.
- ☐ 12. No vessel shall be docked for repairs on the banks of the canal.
- ☐ 13. Wherever mooring posts have been put up by the Canal Officer, vessels shall be made fast by the head and stern along the banks to such posts, and shall not be moored in any other manner.
- ☐ 14. No anchor shall be dropped, and no bamboo or myo shall be fixed in any part of the canal itself, or of the canal lands in which such acts may be prohibited by general or special notice issued by the Canal Officer.
- ☐ 15. Except when a vessel is actually being loaded or unloaded, no vessel shall be moored on the side of the canal nearest the towing path.
- ☐ 16. No persons shall place obstructions on the canal banks, roads, drains or bridges so as to impede free passage along or cause injury to them, and no one shall commit a nuisance, or deposit filth of any sort on the banks or in the canal.

- ☐ 17. No fire or artificial light of any description shall be used on boats containing petrol- eum, “thekkay,” or straw whilst entering or passing out of a lock.
- ☐ 18. No cargo shall be loaded or unloaded, and no passenger shall be shipped or landed at any lock, or on any masonry work, or within 100 feet of the same.
- ☐ 19. No goods shall be stacked on any part of the tow-path, or on the canal side of the tow-path under any circumstances, nor shall they be stacked on canal lands without the special permission of a Canal Officer.
- ☐ 20. No person shall, unless duly authorized, interfere with the weirs, regulators, or locks or any part of their machinery.
- ☐ 21. No raft in the canal shall exceed 160 feet in length or 24 feet in breadth. It shall be deemed a breach of this rule if two or more rafts are connected with one another.
- ☐ 22. No raft shall be moored or remain in the canal within a quarter of a mile from any lock.
- ☐ 23. Vessels shall be brought up to a lock in the order in which they may be arranged by the officer in charge of the lock and according to his directions.
- ☐ 24. No persons shall without the previous permission in writing of the Canal Officer pass or cause to pass any animal or vehicle on or across any works, banks, or channel of the canal other than those set apart for the purpose.
- ☐ 25. No person who has paid tolls for the navigation of the canal shall have any claim to compensation in consequence of the closure of the canal for repairs, or because of insufficiency of water, or on account of any other impediment to navigation.
- ☐ 26. No person shall wilfully or negligently allow a vessel to sink in the canal.
- ☐ 27. The Canal Officer is authorized to remove any vessel, anchor, pole, or other thing which he may find in a position which is in contravention of these rules, and to deal with any such thing in such manner as may be necessary to give effect to the rules.
- ☐ 28. Notices under section 9 of the Act shall be published in the Burma Gazette, and by affixing copies thereof to notice-boards at the Tawa and Myitkyo locks.
- ☐ 29. The penalty specified in section 18 of the Act shall attach to every breach of Rules 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 26.
